

Association (Piaget's Stages of Cognitive Development)

- A. Sensorimotor (birth to 2 years)
- B. Preoperational (two to seven years)
- C. Concrete Operational (seven to eleven years)
- D. Formal Operational (eleven to adulthood)

- _____ 1. Draw pictures to represent things
- _____ 2. Personal ideals and values are formulated
- _____ 3. Object Permanence
- _____ 4. Thinking becomes more abstract
- _____ 5. Elementary arithmetic
- _____ 6. Symbolic representation
- _____ 7. Thinking displayed in action
- _____ 8. Acquires conversation
- _____ 9. Language first appears
- _____ 10. Can make deductions
- _____ 11. Can think of several dimensions at the same time
- _____ 12. Separation anxiety